Supporting Children and Adolescents in Uncertain Times

Children and adolescents are often unable to verbalise their feelings. They sometimes “act out” their emotions. They may have angry outbursts, panic attacks or even become extremely emotional, crying over little things. Parents and carers may think that these young people are simply being “drama queens” and treat it as a behaviour problem.

What your child needs at this time is support and understanding, not disciplinary action. When we express anger, there are usually underlying feelings of sadness, fear and frustration. And, right now, most of us are feeling these things. Children may be sad about not being able to visit family and friends or play sports. They might miss being at school. They may feel fearful about the future or scared of getting sick. They could be frustrated because they feel couped-up, stuck at home and bored.

Children sense the emotions of the adults around them, even when we don’t talk about our feelings or we try to hide them. We teach them how to cope in uncertain times. So, it’s really important to be aware of what we say and how we act. It’s also important to seek help if we are struggling. If you don’t look after yourself, you can’t look after anyone else.

Being very anxious, frightened and sad are normal reactions to an abnormal situation. And this is a very abnormal situation!

So, how do we support our young people? Firstly, try to help them talk about what they are feeling and let them know that you understand. Validate their feelings by telling them that it’s OK to be sad, angry or frightened.

Most importantly, don’t burden children with adult problems. If you’re not coping emotionally or financially, seek help from other adults, such as family and friends or professional counsellors, or contact one of the organisations listed below.

If you would like to speak with me, I’m offering free 20 minute phone or zoom consultations. Please call or email me to make an appointment.

Pope Francis' Prayer to Mary during the Coronavirus Pandemic

O Mary,
You always shine on our path as a sign of salvation and of hope.
We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who at the cross took part in Jesus' pain, keeping your faith firm.

You know what we need, and we are sure you will provide so that as in Cana of Galilee, we may return to joy and to feasting after this time of trial.

Help us, Mother of Diving Love, to conform to the will of the Father and to do as we are told by Jesus, who has taken upon himself our sufferings and carried our sorrows to lead us, through the cross, to the joy of the resurrection.

Amen.

Mass will be live streamed via our Parish FaceBook page at 10am on Sunday.

Please note that Catholics in the Diocese of Parramatta are dispensed from their Sunday Mass obligations until further notice. Church buildings are closed and Masses (both indoors and outdoors) are to cease.

A Message from Bishop Vincent

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

Every week, as a people of faith, we gather at our parishes and celebrate God's steadfast, unconditional and grace-filled love for us. During the corona virus pandemic, I hope that you, your family and friends, are as safe and healthy as possible.

Although socially isolated, we can still rejoice together from home as one Church, as the One Body of Christ, knowing that we are helping to save and protect lives.

Let us rejoice and give thanks to God for all that He has done for us in Jesus . . . for our salvation and all the lives that He has transformed through His saving grace.

Let us rejoice in all the good work in our community that God accomplishes through us together within our parish families and as individuals.

Our parishes rely on the generosity of our faith community to sustain our liturgical, sacramental, pastoral and charitable ministries and we are ever grateful for your faithful support.

The COVID-19 pandemic is having an unimaginable impact on our parishes and their ability to raise funds to support their ministries, pastoral care programs and charitable works.

If you can manage to do so, would you please consider a Thanksgiving Offertory gift towards the evangelical work of your parish as a way to joyfully respond to God's gift of grace to us in Jesus Christ and all His blessings?

Any gift, whatever you can give, will nurture the spiritual vitality of our parishes and will ensure that we can continue to provide Christian pastoral care that brings hope and joy to our community.

The spirit of giving and sharing our blessings is what's important.

If you're able to consider a gift of sustained support for your parish through planned giving, the best way is through recurring monthly online donations. It's safe and easy; and your automatic contributions will ensure that your spiritual decision to support your parish and faith family remains an ongoing priority.

More than ever, our Church is needed to bring love, hope, care and Christ's message of salvation to our community.

Every gift bears witness to God's love for us and deepens our own sense of living gratitude for the grace that He has poured out into each of our hearts and lives.
May God continue to bless you always and keep you safe and in good health.
