Plenary Council 2020

Pope Francis has approved the Australian Bishops' decision to hold a Plenary Council in Australia in 2020 and 2021. It is a significant moment for the Church in Australia to make decisions about the future. To prepare the agenda for the Plenary Council, all of God's people are invited to reflect on the question: "What do you think God is asking of us in Australia at this time?"

Find out more about the Plenary Council 2020 at the new website, now online: www.plenarycouncil.catholic.org.au

REFUGEE WEEK – (JUNE 17 – 23).

Jesuit Refugee Services are requesting parishes, community groups and individuals to join in a unique fundraising event – Cook2Connect during the upcoming Refugee Week, 17 – 23 June.

Very soon government funded income support for people seeking asylum will stop – this will leave many families and individuals in a desperate situation – vulnerable people who have fled their homelands in fear for their lives.

Over the past 3 years JRS has been supporting many people trying to survive on very little income. Future needs are about to escalate due to the cut-backs and so JRS is trying to raise funds to accommodate the growing number of asylum seekers needing assistance for basic needs such as food, toiletries, etc.

The fundraising event, Cook2Connect will hopefully enable JRS to continue and extend the help they now offer to our suffering brothers and sisters.

All the steps regarding how to participate are on the flyer.

To register, call JRS on (02) 9356 3888 or email Joanna.brooke@jrs.org.au

Thank you so much for your support – it is much appreciated!

FROM THE GOSPEL

In our reading for today, we read the account of the Last Supper found in the Gospel of Mark. It begins with the instructions that Jesus gave to his disciples to prepare their Passover celebration. It then goes on to give an account of the Last Supper. On this Sunday, however, our Lectionary reading omits the verses between these two passages; in those omitted verses we hear Jesus predict his betrayal by one of his disciples.

The Gospel of Mark describes Jesus' Last Supper with his disciples as a celebration of the Jewish feast of Passover. The Jewish celebration of Passover is a memorial to and a ritual participation in the defining moment of Israel's history. It celebrates God's deliverance of his people from slavery in Egypt. The Passover meal includes many ritually important elements, such as unleavened bread, lamb, and bitter herbs. Each food item recalls an aspect of the Exodus event. The instructions for the preparation of this meal are carefully prescribed in the Law of Moses. It is a central obligation of the Jewish faith tradition to celebrate this meal and to give thanks to God for his deliverance and protection.

In the description of the Passover meal found in today's Gospel, however, Mark omits many elements of the Jewish Passover meal. Instead he describes only those elements he believes to be most essential to the Christian Eucharist: Jesus took bread, blessed the bread, broke the bread, and shared it with his disciples. Similar words and actions follow as Jesus shares the chalice with his disciples. This bread now shared is Jesus' own body. Those who drink from the chalice are invited to share in a new covenant which will be sealed by Jesus' own blood. Mark's Eucharistic theology looks forward to the Kingdom of God that Jesus inaugurates.

The Gospel for today reminds us that the Eucharist is a memorial of Christ's sacrifice on the cross. We believe that Jesus is truly present to us in the elements of bread and wine. Each time we celebrate this sacrament, we prepare for the Kingdom of God. This celebration, as the Second Vatican Council taught us, is the source and summit of the Christian life.
