Plenary Council 2020

National Theme for Discernment #1 – How is God calling us to be a Christ-centred Church that is Missionary and Evangelising? This National Theme for Discernment is inspired by the voices of the People of God who shared a passion for participating in the missionary nature of the Church and desire stronger support, involvement and formation among all the baptised who make up the Church.

National Theme for Discernment #2 – How is God calling us to be a Christ-centred Church that is Inclusive, Participatory and Synodal? SVDP WINTER APPEAL

Dear Parishoners,

THANKYOU THANKYOU THANKYOU

We were overwhelmed by the response to our toiletries appeal. So a sincere thankyou for your response and generosity. It would appear that we might be adequately supplied for the next 18 months in this area of need.

PLEASE PLEASE PLEASE

However we now find our reserves of emergency food depleted. This is the longer term cans of soup, vegetables etc that we keep over many months for the visits to needy families. We hesitate to say but even the supply of baked beans and spaghetti has almost been exhausted.

So we really need canned food of any description with as long a life expiry as possible. Maybe even long life milk could be helpful if that is easier for you. The fresh food we can purchase as needed and via the supermarket vouchers that we are supplied with. So can you please place items in the boxes at the back of the churches over the next few weeks (until the end of July).

No particular packaging is required and the environment will be happier without more plastic bags.

Your SVDP Group

Priest: 'No, not if you did not know.'

Eskimo: 'Then why did you tell me?'

Annie Dillard

Entrance Antiphon: He fed them with the finest wheat and satisfied them with honey from the rock.

Responsorial Psalm: You are a priest for ever, in the line of Melchizedek.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! I am the living bread from heaven, says the Lord; whoever eats this bread will live for ever. Alleluia!

FROM THE GOSPEL

Today, the second Sunday after Pentecost, we celebrate a second solemnity, which marks our return to Ordinary Time. Today is the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. At one time, this day was called Corpus Christi, Latin for “the Body of Christ.” In the most recent revision of the liturgy, the name for this day is expanded to be a more complete reflection of our Eucharistic theology.

The feeding of the 5,000 is the only one of Jesus' miracles to appear in all four Gospels. Luke places it between Herod's question, “Who is this about whom I hear such things?” and Peter's response to Jesus' question about who he thought Jesus was: “You are the Messiah of God.” In Luke the feeding is not the result of Jesus' compassion for the crowd but is instigated by the disciples. They wanted Jesus to send the crowd away to town. Instead Jesus tells the disciples to give them some food on their own.

The passage is meant to remind us of two feedings in the Old Testament: the feeding of the Israelites in the desert and Elisha's feeding of 100 people with 20 loaves in 2 Kings 4:42-44. It is also connected to the institution of the Eucharist. As in the Last Supper accounts in Matthew, Mark, and Luke and in Paul's account in 1 Corinthians 11:23-24, Jesus takes bread, looks up to heaven, blesses the bread, breaks it, and then gives it to the disciples. In using this exact language, Luke is reminding his readers that in this miracle Jesus is doing more than feeding hungry people as God did for the Israelites and the prophet Elisha did as well. The bread he gives is his body, which he will continue to give as often as the community breaks bread in remembrance of him in the Eucharist.
