Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Another milestone in this Covid Roadmap to normality.

With easing restrictions from this week:-

- We are allowed to sing even though we still need to keep our masks on.
- We can now accept double the capacity, meaning no need to register at Warragamba though we still need to QR code or sign in.
- Still we need to observe caution, and ventilation remains a priority.
- Mask wearing indoors and keeping the distance of 2 sqm

Let us thank our God for all our gifts and blessings by rejoicing in song and worship.

This weekend we will begin the sale of tickets for our Christmas raffle.

Due to the pandemic this year we were unable to hold two main events that normally support parish expenses; the Dinner Dance and the Melbourne Cup.

Hopefully next year we can celebrate these two enjoyable events.

I would like to thank you in advance for supporting this raffle and the parish.

My sincere thanks to the parishioners that donated the prizes as well as a big thank you to the Fundraising team who help with Fundraising every year.

Fr Giovani

CHILDREN'S CHRISTMAS VIGIL MASS

At the Christmas Vigil Mass every year the children of our parish enjoy participating in song, dance and pageantry. With the limitedness of Covid Restrictions we are unable to do the weeks of rehearsals that go into the planning of this Mass. Therefore, I am asking any children interested in participating to submit an audition by video or audio. These auditions will need to be to the Christmas Hymns and versions that we sing on the night. There is also opportunity for Liturgical movement and reading. If your child is interested in participating please email me, Janet Borg at jntbrg@yahoo.com.au with their interest whether it be in singing, dancing or reading and I will send you by return email the music, readings, etc. according to your child's interest.

All acceptable auditions will be used as a film clip before our Christmas Masses but to keep to Covid Restriction numbers the best auditions will take the leading parts. Any child is able and encouraged to audition for as many parts as they wish. For more information email me on above address.

Closing date for all auditions is Sunday 5th December.

Entrance Antiphon

The Lord said: I think thoughts of peace and not of affliction. You will call upon me, and I will answer you, and I will lead back your captives from every place.

First Reading

Daniel 12:1-3

'At that time Michael will stand up, the great prince who mounts guard over your people. There is going to be a time of great distress, unparalleled since nations first came into existence. When that time comes, your own people will be spared, all those whose names are found written in the Book. Of those who lie sleeping in the dust of the earth many will awake, some to everlasting life, some to shame and everlasting disgrace. The learned will shine as brightly as the vault of heaven, and those who have instructed many in virtue, as bright as stars for all eternity.'

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 15:5,8-11

R. Keep me safe, O God; you are my hope.

O Lord, it is you who are my portion and cup;
it is you yourself who are my prize.
I keep the Lord ever in my sight:
since he is at my right hand, I shall stand firm. R.

And so my heart rejoices, my soul is glad;
even my body shall rest in safety.
For you will not leave my soul among the dead,
nor let your beloved know decay. R.

You will show me the path of life,
the fullness of joy in your presence,
at your right hand happiness for ever. R.

Prayer of St Ignatius Loyola

Lord Jesus teach me to be generous,
to serve you as you deserve to be served,
to give without counting the cost,
to fight without heeding the wounds,
to work without seeking rest,
to spend my life without expecting any other return than the knowledge that I do your will.

Amen.

Second Reading

Hebrews 10:11-14,18

All the priests stand at their duties every day, offering over and over again the same sacrifices which are quite incapable of taking sins away. Christ, on the other hand, has offered one single sacrifice for sins, and then taken his place for ever, at the right hand of God, where he is now waiting until his enemies are made into a footstool for him. By virtue of that one single offering, he has achieved the eternal perfection of all whom he is sanctifying. When all sins have been forgiven, there can be no more sin offerings.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Luke 21:36

Alleluia, alleluia!

Be watchful and pray constantly, that you may be worthy to stand before the Son of Man.

Alleluia!

Gospel

Mark 13:24-32

Jesus said to his disciples: 'In those days, after the time of distress, the sun will be darkened, the moon will lose its brightness, the stars will come falling from heaven and the powers in the heavens will be shaken. And then they will see the Son of Man coming in the clouds with great power and glory; then too he will send the angels to gather his chosen from the four winds, from the ends of the world to the ends of heaven.

'Take the fig tree as a parable: as soon as its twigs grow supple and its leaves come out, you know that summer is near. So with you, when you see these things happening: know that he is near, at the very gates. I tell you solemnly, before this generation has passed away all these things will have taken place. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.

'But as for that day or hour, nobody knows it, neither the angels of heaven, nor the Son; no one but the Father.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon

To be near God is my happiness,
to place my hope in God the Lord.
