CHILDREN'S CHRISTMAS VIGIL MASS

At the Christmas Vigil Mass every year the children of our parish enjoy participating in song, dance and pageantry. With the limitedness of Covid Restrictions we are unable to do the weeks of rehearsals that go into the planning of this Mass. Therefore, I am asking any children interested in participating to submit an audition by video or audio.

These auditions will need to be to the Christmas Hymns and versions that we sing on the night.

There is also opportunity for Liturgical movement and reading.

If your child is interested in participating please email me, Janet Borg at jntbrg@yahoo.com.au with their interest whether it be in singing, dancing or reading and I will send you by return email the music, readings, etc. according to your child's interest.

All acceptable auditions will be used as a film clip before our Christmas Masses but to keep to Covid Restriction numbers the best auditions will take the leading parts. Any child is able and encouraged to audition for as many parts as they wish.

Closing date for all auditions is Sunday 5th December.

For more information email me on above address.

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

It is wonderful to see our community coming to life again. Please keep in mind Covid Safety; by now we should all know the restrictions even though we gain more and more freedom every week.

Most important is the wearing of masks and keeping the distance please. Help us keep our churches open.

Don't forget to QR Code or sign in.

Warragamba Church worshippers will need to register due to limited space a little while longer, soon we will be at higher capacity.

May the peace of the Lord be with you all.

First Reading

1Kings 17:10-16

Elijah the Prophet went off to Sidon. And when he reached the city gate, there was a widow gathering sticks; addressing her he said, 'Please bring a little water in a vessel for me to drink.' She was setting off to bring it when he called after her. 'Please' he said 'bring me a scrap of bread in your hand.' 'As the Lord your God lives,' she replied 'I have no baked bread, but only a handful of meal in a jar and a little oil in a jug; I am just gathering a stick or two to go and prepare this for myself and my son to eat, and then we shall die.' But Elijah said to her, 'Do not be afraid, go and do as you have said; but first make a little scone of it for me and bring it to me, and then make some for yourself and for your son. For thus the Lord speaks, the God of Israel:

"Jar of meal shall not be spent,
jug of oil shall not be emptied,
before the day when the Lord
Sends rain on the face of the earth."

The woman went and did as Elijah told her and they ate the food, she, himself and her son. The jar of meal was not spent nor the jug of oil emptied, just as the Lord had foretold.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 145:7-10

R. Praise the Lord, my soul!

It is the Lord who keeps faith for ever,
who is just to those who are oppressed.
It is he who gives bread to the hungry,
the Lord, who sets prisoners free. R.

It is the Lord who gives sight to the blind,
who raises up those who are bowed down.
It is the Lord who loves the just,
the Lord, who protects the stranger. R.

The Lord upholds the widow and orphan
but thwarts the path of the wicked.
The Lord will reign for ever,
Zion's God, from age to age. R.

Practicing charity is the best way to evangelize.

Pope Francis' Little book of Wisdom

Second Reading

Hebrews 9:24-28

It is not as though Christ had entered a man-made sanctuary which was only modelled on the real one; but it was heaven itself, so that he could appear in the actual presence of God on our behalf. And he does not have to offer himself again and again, like the high priest going into the sanctuary year after year with the blood that is not his own, or else he would have had to suffer over and over again since the world began. Instead of that, he has made his appearance once and for all, now at the end of the last age, to do away with sin by sacrificing himself. Since men only die once, and after that comes judgement, so Christ, too, offers himself only once to take the faults of many on himself, and when he appears a second time, it will not be to deal with sin but to reward with salvation those who are waiting for him.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Matthew 5:3

Alleluia, alleluia! Happy are the poor in spirit;
the kingdom of heaven is theirs. Alleluia!

Gospel

Mark 12:38-44

In his teaching Jesus said, 'Beware of the scribes who like to walk about in long robes, to be greeted obsequiously in the market squares, to take the front seats in the synagogues and the places of honour at banquets; these are the men who swallow the property of widows, while making a show of lengthy prayers. The more severe will be the sentence they receive.'

He sat down opposite the treasury and watched the people putting money into the treasury, and many of the rich put in a great deal. A poor widow came and put in two small coins, the equivalent of a penny. Then he called his disciples and said to them, 'I tell you solemnly, this poor widow has put more in than all who have contributed to the treasury; for they have all put in money they had over, but she from the little she had has put in everything she possessed.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon

The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want. Fresh and green are the pastures where he gives me repose, near restful waters he leads me.
